Preparation

When possible, we ask patients to print out the Initial Health History Forms, and fill them out before coming to your first appointment. If you are unable to print the forms, please arrive 30 minutes in advance of your scheduled appointment time to fill out the forms. Also, please remember to provide a list of any and all medications and or supplements that you are currently taking (with dosage). We recommend wearing comfortable, loose fitting clothes. We request that you eat a snack or a small meal within two hours of your scheduled treatment time.

Your treatment

Treatments take place in a peaceful, private, comfortable environment. Your visit will begin by discussing health history and your specific goals for treatment, and in addition the intake will include pulse taking and tongue observation. Upon assessing your health condition, your practitioner may select from a variety of techniques to complement your acupuncture treatment. These techniques include: massage, cupping, gua sha, moxibustion heat therapy, electro acupuncture or qi gong rehabilitation. Your treatment may also include dietary and exercise planning that will complement your acupuncture. Treatments will range from 60-90 minutes. To get the most out of your treatment, please take time to relax and reflect both during and after. Following treatment, it is best to keep work or exercise to a minimum for several hours. Our goal is to provide you with the knowledge and tools to support your healing. We encourage patient participation with any questions and feedback.

Herbal Medicine

Treatments at the clinic include herbal medicine, acupuncture, nutrition, and many other techniques. Chinese herbal medicine is tailored to the needs of each patient and used to treat both acute and chronic conditions. Primary options for herbal treatments are the use of teas, tinctured liquid extracts, tea pills, and essential oils. Your practitioner may recommend herbal medicine, which the patient may choose to purchase for their treatment.
